About 'JOSH - THE POWER OF WORDS YOUTH CONCLAVE 2020'

If we look around, the political scenario has suddenly become very dynamic. Especially after some of the bold steps taken by the current government. Some might argue they are in the national interest while some call its sheer populism.

We are sure, everyone has their opinions about these burning topics but can everyone bring out their perspectives in just the right way? If you think you can, what could be a better way to express them than at the Youth Parliament being held at Ideal Institute of Management and Technology.

The youth parliament aims to strengthen the roots of democracy, inculcate healthy habits of discipline, tolerance of the views of others and to enable the student community to understand the working of our Parliamentary institutions. The participating students are allotted different portfolios of Parliamentarians/ministers and they represent their respective constituencies. Further, thumping on tables and raising the placards gives it an effect of a real parliament session. This Youth Parliament focuses on the importance of young minds working on stagnant laws and suggesting a change to rotate the wheel. This event stresses upon inculcating leadership qualities in the youth of our country.

It gives me immense pleasure to put forward that the committees and the agendas of the previous editions were highly appreciated not only by the guest of honor but also by the experts and students of various esteemed institution.

If you trust your ability to convey and convince your stand on a topic of national importance, get yourself registered now!

In case of single-seat parties, the defection is to be decided at the discretion of the speaker.

13. LEGISLATIVE BUSINESS

Law-making is a major function of Parliament and, therefore, in the Youth parliament the legislative business should form an important part. All legislative proposals are brought in the form of Bills before the Parliament. No Bill can become a law unless it has been passed by the parliament and has received assent of the President. The proposal is given the shape of a Bill and introduced in Parliament. Bills are either Government Bills which are sponsored by Ministers, or private members' bills which are sponsored by individual members other than ministers.

Each Bill undergoes three Readings

First Reading

- I. The First Reading means a motion for permission to introduce a Bill. On the adoption of the motion the Bill is introduced.
- II. We will skip the first reading as it only seeks leave to introduce a Bill.

Second Reading

There are two stages in the Second Reading of the bill. In the first stage, the motion that the Bill to be taken into consideration is adopted. [This is followed by discussion on the principles of the bill.] In the second stage, clause-by-clause consideration of the Bill is taken up. Notices of amendment are given any time after the introduction of a Bill. An amendment is admissible if it is within the scope of the bill. After the introduction of the bill, the minister concerned formally moves that the bill to be taken up for consideration. The minister will say; "sir, I beg to move that the bill to be taken into consideration." The Minister then makes a brief introductory speech outlining of the importance of the Bill.

After this the Speaker formally places the motion before the house with the announcement that "The motion is that the Bill to be taken into consideration." This is followed by a discussion in which the members from either side can take part after giving prior notice of their intention to the secretary-general. It may be noted that the discussion should be held on the general principles and provisions of the Bill. The Speaker asks members from both the Treasury and the Opposition benches to speak on the bill. After the discussion, the Minister concerned makes a closing speech and winds up the discussion. The motion for consideration is then put to the house. After it has been adopted, clause-by-clause discussion of the bill takes place. Amendments, if any, are permitted and voted upon.

Third Reading

In the Third Reading the Minister concerned moves that the bill be passed. The Speaker then puts the question before the house in these words: The Question is that theBill, 199... be passed. Those in favor will say 'Aye', those against will say 'No.' after taking the voice vote, he/she declares thrice that Ayes (or Noes) have it. He will then say that 'the Bill is passed (not passed)", as the case may be. It may be noted that for passing an ordinary Bill a simple majority is required and for Bills pertaining to Constitutional Amendments two-thirds majority is necessary.

14. PRIVILEGES TO THE MPs

These privileges in the form of permission or points are allowed at all times when a speaker is not speaking or immediately after the speaker has finished speaking. Point of Information is not allowed at certain times as mentioned above in relevant sections. Permission to rise a motion is only allowed at certain time periods as previously mentioned along with the motions

- POINT OF INFORMATION: This may be used to put up questions on a member's statement. (Shall be in writing until and unless allowed)
