RULES AND REGULATIONS

The speakers shall either speak for the motion or against the motion. No speaker would be permitted to speak from both the sides of the motion

Each speaker shall be allotted 2 minutes to present their arguments. However, the opener of the house shall be given 4 minutes at the commencement of the debate

The opener at the end of the debate would also be given 2 more minutes to present his/her closing remarks after all the speakers have spoken, thereby, closing the house.

Mere reading of the argument out of the paper would lead to deduction of marks.

Use of unparliamentary language and gestures would result in disqualification of the participant.

Participants speaking beyond the given time (2 minutes) would be subjected to deduction of points.

The decision of the judges will be final and unchallengeable.

CODE OF CONDUCT

All debaters should be visible on camera at all times during the competition.

The opposition must mute their microphones to minimise noise interruption and unmute when their team speaks

The entire event will be recorded and kept for 48 hours for review purpose only.
