ABOUT: MOOT COURT COMMITTEE

Since the inception of the Faculty of Law at the Jagran Lakecity University, the Moot Court Committee has been its indispensable part. It is a student-run initiative under the guidance of faculty in-charges and seeks to hone and promote the culture of mooting in the University. The aim of the Committee is to foster and regulate mooting and allied activities of the University in a just and fair manner. The MCC at the JLU Faculty of Law is committed to facilitate the aim of practical learning and capacity building of the young law students.

The Moot Court Committee of Faculty of Law, Jagran Lakecity University, Bhopal have within the short span of five years successfully organized five editions of JLU Moot Court Competition. Following Important Moot Court Competitions on diverse themes have been organized in the previous years:

I. 1st JLU National Moot Court Competition took place from February 17 to February 19, 2017. The event was inaugurated with grandeur by Mr. Ram Jethmalani, former Law Minister and senior advocate, Supreme Court of India.

II. 2nd edition of the JLU National Moot Court Competition was based on Constitutional Law which took place from February 16-18, 2018.

III. 1st SAARCLAW-JLU Moot Court Competition was organized in the year 2019 and was based on the themes of International Human rights and Constitutional Law.

IV. 2nd SAARCLAW-JLU Moot Court Competition was organized in the year 2020 and was based on 'pink' theme in order to promote female representation in bar and bench.

V. 3rd SAARCLAW-JLU Moot Court Competition was organized on an online platform in the year 2021 and was based on Maritime Law and International Arbitration Law.

ABOUT AUAP

This edition of the JLU Moot Court Competition, 2022 is in collaboration with Association of the Universities of Asia and the Pacific.

AUAP primary purpose is to be the main platform for interaction and collaboration between members, and to be an effective voice of universities in Asia and the Pacific region. The leaders of AUAP have adopted a unified vision for the organization and that is the promotion of the general welfare and good image of their members. Through the cooperation of all these leaders, AUAP has the capability to shape and influence the outlook of higher education regionally and globally. The heads of these higher education institutions enjoy a global network of supportive colleagues and this enables AUAP to secure support for member institutions' interest and concerns.

MESSAGE FROM AUAP PRESIDENT

On behalf of the Association of Universities of Asia and the Pacific (AUAP), I would like to congratulate the Jagran Lakecity University as it holds its 6th edition of JLU International Moot Court Competition on August 5 – 7, 2022 at the Faculty of Law, Jagran Lakecity University, Bhopal.

I am certain that this Moot Court Competition would be able to facilitate knowledge sharing and fuel the drive to attain a higher level of growth of all the participants.

At this point, allow me to congratulate all the participants and the organizers in making this event a success.

A warm welcome to everyone and more power!

DR. PETER P. LAUREL
AUAP President

MESSAGE FROM THE FIRST VICE PRESIDENT - AUAP

It gives me immense pleasure to apprise that Jagran Lakecity University (JLU) is organizing an International Moot Court Competition in collaboration with the Association of Universities of Asia and the Pacific (AUAP). JLU is a valued member of AUAP. We believe that this Moot Court Competition would be the gateway for the eligible teams for participating in external moot court competition, to give a platform to the promising lawyers of the member institutions to imbibe analytical skills in real-time situations, help in developing skills and fostering the academic relationship focusing on the wider sections of the society. I congratulate JLU for taking the lead and also creating a common platform for all AUAP partnering universities to leverage the benefit.

As we are already witnessing that, practical knowledge is a new approach to teaching and learning which uses the skills needed to prepare children for their future careers or opportunities in life. Therefore, we particularly welcome this sort of event which creates a professional and healthy competitive environment for the students, faculty members and also ensures that they get the best understanding of classroom learning.

I wish this competition a grand success and all the very best to all the participating teams and the universities.

Dr. Md. Sabur Khan

Founder & Chairman, Board of Trustees
Daffodil International University
First Vice President,
Association of Universities of Asia & the Pacific (AUAP)

MESSAGE FROM THE CHANCELLOR, JLU

Shri Hari Mohan Gupta
Chancellor,
Jagran Lakecity University
Second Vice President,
Association of Universities of Asia & the Pacific (AUAP)

It is a matter of immense pride for me to note that the Faculty of Law is organizing a Sixth JLU Moot Court Competition with an international academic flavour. This time we are organizing this competition in collaboration with the prestigious Association of Universities of the Asia Pacific (AUAP). While the previous editions of this competition were called as SAARC Law- JLU Moot Court Competition, the new partnership with AUAP adds another milestone to the glory of the building legacy of JLU Moot Court Competition.

Maintaining an academic rigour as well as discipline during the Covid times has been a global challenge. I am proud to acknowledge that the Faculty of Law has ensured both the consistency and the quality of its annual moot court competition even in the combative Covid times.

I extend my best wishes to the participating teams who would be preparing relentlessly for this highly prestigious and competitive Moot Court Competition. I express gratitude to our leading host partner AUAP for supporting the event and all other collaborators who share with us a vision of collective responsibility towards strengthening legal education and ensuring its accessibility by the larger sections of the society with passing times.

11. JUDGING OF MEMORIAL

11.1. Every Memorial will be marked on a maximum of one hundred (100) marks by each judge on the basis of criteria mentioned in Rule 11.2.

11.2. SUBSTANTIVE SCORING

Each judge can award a maximum of one hundred (100) marks and the Memorials will be judged on the following criteria:

MARKING CRITERIA	MARKS ALLOTTED
Evidence of Original Thought	20
Knowledge of Law and Facts	20
Proper and Articulate Analysis	20
Correct format and Citation	20
Extent and Use of Research	20
TOTAL MARKS	100

12. COMPENDIUM

12.1. GENERAL:

Teams may prepare one Claimant Compendium and one Respondent Compendium. All Compendiums must be in English.

12.2. The compendium in no way should disclose the identity of the participants. Breach of anonymity of teams shall lead to penalty.

12.3. At the discretion of the tribunal, the teams shall be allowed to present the compendium before the Tribunal.

13. RESEARCHER'S TEST

The "Researcher's Test" shall take place on August 6, 2022. Only the Researcher, as indicated in the team registration form, shall be eligible to take the Researcher's Test. The speaker can only take the Researcher's Test if the team comprises of 2 speakers only.

14. Oral Rounds

14.1. DRAW OF LOTS

The match up of teams in Preliminary Rounds shall be determined on the basis of draw of lots. Draw of lots and Memorial Exchange shall take place on August 5, 2022 after the Inaugural Ceremony.

14.2. PRELIMINARY ROUNDS

14.2.1. The preliminary rounds will be held on August 6, 2022. The Preliminary rounds shall comprise of Two Rounds of oral arguments subject to the allotment of team codes. In the preliminary rounds, each team shall have to argue twice, once as Claimant and the other as Respondent.

14.2.2. Each team will get a total of 30 minutes to present their case. This time will include rebuttal and sur-rebuttal time (if permitted by the arbitrator(s)). The division of time per speaker is left to the discretion of the team, subject to a minimum of 10 minutes per speaker and not more than 15 minutes per speaker. Rebuttals can be assigned a time period of not more than 2 minutes.

14.2.3. The oral arguments should be confined to the issues presented in the memorial. No two Teams will argue against each other more than once in the Preliminary Rounds.

14.3. ORDER OF PRESENTATION

14.3.1. Prior to the beginning of a particular oral round, the two teams participating in that round shall discuss amongst each other and reach a consensus on the order of presentation of oral arguments to be followed in that round.

14.3.2. At the beginning of the round, the teams shall inform the arbitral tribunal regarding the order of presentation that they have mutually agreed upon. Notwithstanding the agreement that the teams may have reached, the final authority to decide the order of presentation rests with the arbitral tribunal.

Explanation: Some panels of arbitrators may ask one team to present its arguments on all of the issues before the other team is permitted to present its arguments. Other panels of arbitrators may ask both teams to argue one issue first (including rebuttal and sur-rebuttal for that issue) before they both argue in respect of a second issue. Normally the party which has raised the issue will argue first. Therefore, normally the Claimant would argue first, if it is to present its arguments on all of the issues before the Respondent is permitted to argue. However, if the Respondent has raised an objection to the jurisdiction of the arbitral tribunal or other such defence, the tribunal would normally ask it to present its arguments on that issue before the Claimant responds to it.

14.4. QUALIFYING FOR ADVANCED ROUNDS

14.4.1. The winners of the preliminary rounds, i.e., total eight teams (8 teams) shall qualify for the Quarter Final Rounds. For the purposes of qualification from the Preliminary Rounds to the Quarter Finals, the number of rounds won by the team shall be considered as first criteria. In case there is a tie, the winning difference of their respective rounds shall be taken into consideration. Further, in case of tie after taking winning scores into consideration, the decision shall be taken on the basis of the Memorial marks.

14.5. ADVANCED ROUNDS

14.5.1. Quarter-Finals

● The Quarter Final Rounds shall take place on August 6, 2022. The Teams qualifying to the Quarter Finals shall be on the basis of Two Rounds of Oral arguments of the Preliminary Rounds.

● Each team will get a total of 30 minutes to present their case which will include rebuttal and sur-rebuttal time (if permitted by the Arbitrator(s)).
